FACTS

my name is Tyrone Wrenza Robinson. On September 19th 2014 I was found guilty in a criminal case which I received a life sentence for a crime I did not commit. I timely filed a notice of appeal with this court to appeal my conviction. However I am now being held at Kirkland Correctional Institution. I am being held on lock up and lock down I do not have access to a law library and I am unable to litigate my appeal. I am unable to obtain the transcript or court order. I have no experience in litigating criminal appeals before this court. My case is a very high profile case that involves complex litigation. At this time I do not have an attorney representing me on this
