SC Court of Appeals

REPLY TO MOTION TO DISMISS
and FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Pursuant to Rules 240 and 263(b), S.C.A.C.R., the Appellants, by their counsel herein, reply to the Respondent's Motion to Dismiss and move this Court for an order granting them an extension of time in which to reply to the same, on the grounds stated below:

1. On May 21, 2012, the Appellants' Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to Be Included in the Record on Appeal were hand-delivered to counsel for Respondent. By mailed sent July 19, 2012 and received July 10, counsel for Appellants received the Respondent's Motion to Dismiss, filed with attachments but without the items listed in Appellants' Designation of Matter.
2. Under the normal time limits of Rule 204(e), S.C.A.C.R., Respondent's Motion was to be answered within ten days, rather than the normal period allowed for a Brief. Due to the press of business in his office, counsel for Appellants has been unable to respond within the normal period and moves for the allowance of an extension of time.

3. The facts, as recited in the Respondent's Motion are contested. The following are those facts as understood by the Appellants:

- i. A hearing for Summary Judgment was heard by the Master in Equity, sitting as a Special Circuit Court Judge, on January 27, 2011. The Court stated its ruling and requested a written order. The written Order was executed on February 4, 2012 and mailed on February 14, 2011. (Copy attached.)

- ii. By letter filed with the Court and mailed to opposing counsel on February 7, 2011, the Appellant filed a pro se request for relief. (Copy attached.)

- iii. A later written Motion for relief pro se, invoking Rule 60, S.C.R.C.P., was prepared by other former counsel for Appellants and filed March 1, 2011. (Copy attached.)

- iv. During argument of the Appellants' Motion or Motions on June 16, 2011, counsel referenced their pro se letter of February 4th and argued its status as requesting Rule 59 relief. [TRANSCRIPT OF HEARING, p.4, l.24 – p.5, l.1; p.5,l.13 – p.6,l.11; p.11,l.11 – p.12,l.11; copy attached.] This argument was opposed by counsel for Respondent. [TRANSCRIPT OF HEARING, p.13,l.8-14.]

- v. As the Respondent acknowledges, the Court's written Order denying relief to the Appellants' Motion or Motions heard June 16, 2011 was mailed on July 11, 2011 and, as recited in the Notice of Appeal, received by counsel for Appellants on July 14, 2011.

4. Rule 203(b)(1), S.C.A.C.R., provides, in relevant part:

(b) Time for Service.

(1) Appeals From the Court of Common Pleas. A notice of appeal shall be served on all respondents within thirty (30) days after receipt of written notice of entry of the order or judgment.

5. As this Court may take judicial notice, thirty days after July 14, 2011 would fall on August 13, 2011. August 13, 2011 was a Saturday. Copies of calendars for those months are attached and incorporated.
6. Under those circumstances, the thirtieth day for this appeal would fall on Monday, August 15, 2011. Rule 263(a), S.C.A.C.R., provides, in relevant part:

(a) Computation. In computing any period of time prescribed or allowed by these Rules, by order of court, or by any applicable statute, the day of the act, event, or default after which the designated period of time begins to run is not to be included. The last day of the period so computed is to be included, unless it is a Saturday, Sunday or a state or federal holiday, in which event the period runs until the end of the next day which is neither a Saturday, Sunday nor such holiday.

7. The appeal herein was served on August 15, 2011. That appeal was timely.
8. While the Motion to Dismiss seems to address, by implication, other issues, its request for relief is based solely upon the issue of timeliness. That issue is fully addressed above.

The basis of this Reply and Motion is the within-cited Rules, the records of this appeal, and any attached documentation of the undersigned, which items are hereby incorporated in this Reply and Motion.

WHEREFORE, the Appellants herein move this Court to deny the Motion to Dismiss the Appeal and for an extension of time in which to file this Reply, as set out above, pursuant to Rule 240 and 263(b), S.C.A.C.R.

ORDER

Case No.: 2009-CP-4

DAVID HAMILTON
J.C.C.P. & GS
YORK COUNTY, SC

2011 JUL 11 PM 3:52

FILED-RECEIVED

This matter came before the court on June 16, 2011, upon the Motion for Relief from Judgment (the "Motion") filed by defendants Lucas and Stacy Giannatos (collectively, "Giannatos") pursuant to Rule 60(b), South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure ("SCRCP"). Jeremy D. Melville appeared on behalf of Plaintiff, and John Martin Foster appeared on behalf of Stacy Giannatos and Lucas Giannatos (collectively, "Defendants"), who were also present.

Based on the record and the arguments presented, I find and conclude as follows.

STATEMENT OF CASE

On January 27, 2011, a hearing was held before the undersigned on a Motion for Summary Judgment filed by Plaintiff ("Summary Judgment Motion"). Defendants appeared pro se at the hearing to defend against the Summary Judgment Motion. On February 14, 2011, I entered an Order Granting Summary Judgment ("Order") in favor of Plaintiff. On March 1, 2011, Defendants filed this Motion seeking relief from judgment pursuant to Rule 60(b), SCRCP, on the grounds of excusable neglect, relating to their failure to respond to certain Requests for Admissions served upon them in this action. The factual matter contained in the Requests for Admissions were deemed admitted, and established conclusively for all purposes of this action pursuant to Rule 36, SCRCP. Defendants assert that they did not receive copies of the Requests for Admissions, and that their failure to respond constitutes excusable neglect.

#1

DISCUSSION

"[A] party making a motion under Rule 60(b) has the burden of presenting evidence providing the facts essential to entitle him to relief." McClurg v. Deaton, 380 S.C. 563, 579, 671 S.E.2d 87, 96 (Ct. App. 2008).

The Court finds that Defendants have not presented sufficient evidence of excusable neglect entitling them to relief from final judgment under Rule 60(b), SCRPC. As set forth in the Order, this Court previously determined that the Requests for Admissions at issue in this action were properly served by Plaintiff upon Defendants by mailing the requests pursuant to Rules 36 and 5(b)(1) of the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure. (Order, pp. 1-2, ¶ 4.) See Roche v. Young Brothers, 318 S.C. 207, 211, 456 S.E.2d 897, 900 (1995) ("When the civil rules on service are followed, there is a presumption of proper service."). Defendants have not presented evidence either at the hearing on the Summary Judgment Motion, or in this Motion, to rebut the presumption that the Requests for Admissions were properly served upon Defendants. Every other document served in this case was received by Defendants at the same address to which the Requests for Admission were sent.

Furthermore, Defendants have not presented any other evidence to the Court which would qualify as excusable neglect or otherwise entitle them to relief from final judgment under Rule 60(b), SCRPC.

Therefore, it is ordered that Defendants' Motion for Relief from Judgment be denied.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED.

Dear Judge Kimball;

I never received a copy of the Plaintiff's Motion for Summary Judgment until after the hearing on January 27, 2011. I did not receive a copy of the Plaintiff's Requests for Admissions until I received a copy of the Plaintiff's Motion. I cannot explain why I did not receive these documents, but I did receive the Notice of Hearing, which was sent by certified mail. Thank you.

FLORENCE, SC 29506

Lucas Giannatos and Stacy Giannatos move pursuant to Rules 60 S.C.R. Civ. P for relief from the judgment and order that was entered in this action on or about February 4, 2011. The grounds for this motion are that summary judgment was entered on the basis of plaintiff's Requests for Admissions, which the Giannatos did not receive, and to which the Giannatos were unable to timely respond, constituting excusable neglect. Although the record appears to show that the requests were served by regular mail, as shown in the attached affidavit, the Giannatos never received them. The Giannatos received the notice of hearing, which was sent by the York County Clerk to the same address as indicated in the requests, but cannot explain why they did not receive the requests, which were not sent by certified mail.

The Giannatos are ready, willing and able to present a substantive defense to the plaintiff's claims, including evidence of payment retained by the plaintiff and not credited to their account, and inequitable conduct by the plaintiff and others. Had the Giannatos received the requests, they would have served responses and denied that they owe the plaintiff the sum of $21,467 72, plus interest at the rate of $8 52 per diem for each day after April 29, 2009, as stated in Request No. 10.

Both of these documents show that they were sent to me and my husband at our address in

Charlotte, and I cannot explain what happened, but we never received these documents in the mail, and therefore were unable to respond to them.

3. I have received other documents from the court and from the plaintiff's attorney when they were sent to me by certified mail, including the notice of hearing, and the notice of trial date. My husband and I work from early morning until late at night, and while we regularly check the mail every day, my neighborhood has had problems with strangers intercepting mail from mailboxes. I cannot say whether that happened in this case, but can only say that I never received these papers.

4. I request the opportunity to present our defense to the plaintiff's case, which would include evidence of payment by me to the plaintiff of deposits of $12,000.00 that have not been credited to me, and the fact that I had nothing to do with the plaintiff's replacement of the HVAC system in the building rented by A.P. Karras, and should not be responsible for any costs charged for it.

1 (ON THE RECORD THURSDAY, JUNE 16, 2011 AT 10:00 AM.)

2 THE COURT: All right, this is the defendants motion,
3 they are now represented by Mr. Foster.

4 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: Yes, sir, go ahead.

6 MR. FOSTER: Your Honor, to recite the background of 7 this, if the Court wishes to cut any of this off, it's up
8 to him.

9 THE COURT: Go ahead.

10 MR. FOSTER: Your Honor, there was a hearing on this
11 matter on January 27th. If I'm allowed to say, I happened
12 to be here at that time and not representing these folks.
13 As I understand the dispute at that time was whether they
14 had actually received a Request for Admissions - - -

15 THE COURT: Yes.

16 MR. FOSTER: - - - which had not been responded to.

17 THE COURT: Correct.

18 MR. FOSTER: The questions they had not responded to,
19 Mr. Melville, Plaintiff's summary judgment was based, as I
20 read it, solely upon that failure to respond to the Request
21 for Admissions. That was what it was based on.

22 The Court was presented -- I did not see what it was 23 presented with, but I believe it was a Certificate of 24 Service, and on that basis, as I understand it, did issue -
25 - well, did issue -

1 THE COURT: Well, it's -- my recollection is that the
2 Defendants acknowledged that the address where the Request
3 for Admissions were sent was their address.

4 MR. FOSTER: Yes.

5 THE COURT: That they were served at that address,
6 that they received notice of the hearing at that address.

7 MR. FOSTER: Right.

8 THE COURT: And -- as well as the Motion - - -

9 MR. FOSTER: Yes.

10 THE COURT: - - - for Summary Judgment at that 11 address.

12 MR. FOSTER: I believe that is correct.

13 THE COURT: And said that the Motion for Summary
14 Judgment is the first notice they received.

15 MR. FOSTER: I believe, yes, as to the Request for 16 Admission, yes, sir, that is my understanding. And I
17 believe - -

18 THE COURT: And they did not at that time produce
19 anything other than their bare -- I don't want to minimize 20 by saying bare, but their bare denial that - - -

21 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: - - - they didn't get it.

23 MR. FOSTER: Yes. I believe, although I'm going by 24 memory, all that is correct. There was a denial of a
25 receipt, and that was the -- that became the question, to

1 go on with my recitation. The Court is quite correct about
2 what I recall as the colloquy between the Court and these
3 folks. There was the presentation to the Court I believe
4 with Certificate of Service showing by that basis that 5 there was service.

6 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

7 MR. FOSTER: To go on to what's happened since then,
8 we have the Court's order granting summary judgment which,
9 to my knowledge, simply states boldly in terms of what
10 we're here to discuss today that no service occurred. That 11 was on 2/4/11.

12 THE COURT: Hang on just a minute. I've got the order
13 right here.

14 MR. FOSTER: February the 4th, '11, I believe is 15 correct, or at least the date that it was sent out.

16 THE COURT: The finders of fact says that on March 5,
17 2010, the Plaintiffs served Request for Admissions by 18 mailing.

19 MR. FOSTER: Right.

20 THE COURT: And the certificate of that service was 21 included in the motion.

22 MR. FOSTER: Yes.

23 THE COURT: Okay. Go ahead.

24 MR. FOSTER: The Defendants', pro se, sent a letter to 25 the Court by certified mail dated February 7th. That is, I

1 believe, in the file and proof of knowledge.

2 After that, the Defendants went to a friend of theirs.
3 I believe I'm allowed to have to say it was Mr. Belue and 4 submitted a more formal motion dated -- well, I believe
5 it's dated February 24th and filed March 1st.

6 THE COURT: Went to whom?

7 MR. FOSTER: Mr. Belue, Dan Belue.

8 THE COURT: Oh, oh, oh, all right.

9 MR. FOSTER: Who helped them prepare a pro se motion
10 based upon the ruling of this Court.

11 THE COURT: I understand. Go ahead.

12 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir.

13 To begin with, to make my argument that I believe the 14 standard we're dealing with here is that of Rule 59 because 15 the letter which essentially sets out their argument was 16 sent timely within 10 days. I would argue that even when 17 we're looking at the standard -

18 THE COURT: You mean good cause?

19 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir.

20 THE COURT: Rule 55?

21 MR. FOSTER: Rule 59, yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: No. Rule 59 is this motion.

23 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: What are you saying? Are you saying I
25 should have judged -- by what standards should I have

1 judged -

2 MR. FOSTER: No, sir, not past tense, present tense.

3 THE COURT: All right.

4 MR. FOSTER: I was trying to say poorly that there was 5 a motion within ten days.

6 THE COURT: Oh, Rule 59 Motion.

7 MR. FOSTER: Right, right. And that later Mr. Belue,
8 who I believe, if I'm allowed to say from my conversations,
9 was not aware of that letter invoked Rule 60. We do
10 believe it will be allowable if we make these arguments on 11 both standards, we'll go into that if the Court wishes.

12 Your Honor, I would like to hand up what the Court may 13 be aware of, which is the 2008 case from the Court of 14 Appeals, McClure versus Deaton. I'm sorry to say I do not
15 have the thing marked, but it is page 96, I believe, if I
16 can find it, and they discuss what happens -- here it is,
17 if I may turn to it and hand it to the Court. The 18 discussion on that page has to do with what proof of 19 service is and how it occurs, what effects it has.

20 On page 96, they state, that a compliance with the 21 rules of civil procedure on service, which I will certainly
22 concede a Certificate of Service is, raise the presumption
23 of proper service. Obviously, it is our contention that 24 that presumption can be rebutted.

25 THE COURT: Well, it also says -- cites a case that.

1 says that that presumption cannot be impeached by the mere
2 denial of service.

3 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir, and -- but in some cases that
4 is what is available to the client. And I believe in that 5 case, I believe, if I recall correctly, the one Court the 6 is citing that they are also referring to a case where
7 we're talking about an officer service which creates, I
8 believe, a prior presumption. Here we are talking about a
9 Certificate of Service.

10 My understanding, Your Honor, the Court obviously is 11 here to make such decisions, is that I understand the 12 modern rulings and the modern trend to be that if there is 13 a good faith question as to service, especially when we're
14 dealing with pro se clients, I believe that in itself
15 raises a situation which is proper to ask for a leave from 16 the Court. That is what we do here today. I would point
17 out a situation here which, I believe, goes further than a
18 mere denial that perhaps opposing counsel can explain it.

19 While perhaps it means nothing, I have examined the 20 documents that the Gviannots have on this case. They 21 showed me a copy of the Request for -- to Admit, which they 22 have stated to me as they've stated in their affidavit,
23 they were given only at the time of the hearing on the 24 other matter. They did however have, perhaps this can 25 explain, and I'm going to show this to counsel, what

1 appears to be an original mailing to Mr. Bradford, who at 2 that time represented other counsel -- other defendants in 3 the case.

4 Now, there may be a reason. -- but if I may approach,
5 Your Honor.

6 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

7 MR. FOSTER: I'll show this to the Court. There may 8 be a reason, perhaps fulfillment of what was understood to 9 be the civil procedure rules for my clients to have what
10 appears to be an original mailing to Mr. Bradford. But it
11 would seem to me to raise a question, is it possible on the 12 basis of that document, which the Court will notice from 13 the cover page and throughout, does not include the Request
14 to Admit and which is, in fact, the discovery request to 15 Mr. Bradford's client that possibly some mistake in mailing
16 took place. I cannot speak to the practice of the Spencer
17 Firm as to how such things are done but that was in their 18 possession.

19 THE COURT: This is simply offered -- this is a copy
20 that was in the possession of the Defendants Gviannots?

21 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir.

22 THE COURT: Of material mailed to - - -

23 MR. FOSTER: The office.

24 THE COURT: - - - to Mr. Bradford?

25 MR. FOSTER: Well, yes, sir. I believe the date is

1 the same as the matter in question, March 5, 2010. It
2 would seem at least to raise the question of whether there
3 might have been a mistake in the mailing.

4 THE COURT: You mean in the Certificate of Mailing?

5 MR. FOSTER: Well, yes, in the fact and in the matter
6 of the proved fact, yes, sir.

7 Your Honor, my argument -- I'm sorry.

8 THE COURT: Are you saying that this is -- that an 9 inference is raised that this is what was sent to the 10 Gviannots, not Request for Admission?

11 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir, that they received the wrong
12 mailing.

13 THE COURT: But this is to Mr. Bradford.

14 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir. That is my point.

15 THE COURT: But the mailing that I'm -- that I recall
16 was a mailing -- I do not recall. I better I say that.
17 Whether the mailing that they relied upon was a mailing to 18 Mr. Bradford and the Gviannots.

19 MR. FOSTER: The Certificate of Service does state
20 they have mailed the Request for Admissions to -- direct to 21 the Giannotos, to both the Giannotos and to Mr. Bradford.

22 THE COURT: Who was not their lawyer?

23 MR. FOSTER: Who was not their lawyer. It was a
24 lawyer for another defendant.

25 THE COURT: Right, an LLC.

1 MR. FOSTER: Actually of several defendants, I
2 believe.

3 That, however, is the document they received, and it
4 would seem to me to raise the presumption that there was,
5 in fact, a mistake in mailing. That, in fact, was what was 6 mailed rather than the Request for Admission.

7 THE COURT: All right.

8 MR. FOSTER: Your Honor, in cases like this, it's a
9 simple fact that sometimes the post office makes mistakes.
10 My clients have no ability to prove a negative by any 11 mechanism other -- this was not certified mail -- by any 12 mechanism other than what they've submitted to this Court,
13 sworn affidavits from both of them. That is with the 14 motion that was prepared.

15 THE COURT: Actually, there was a Court of Appeals
16 case within the last week that says, again, that absent
17 proof of -- to support a claim that you didn't receive
18 something by mail, you don't get relief.

19 MR. FOSTER: Well, sir, all I can -

20 THE COURT: I don't remember the name of it.

21 MR. FOSTER: I understand that. All I can respond,
22 especially since the Court is more up on this than I am in 23 terms of last week's rulings, is to repeat my argument, my 24 clients can only go so far to prove a negative.

25 THE COURT: I agree with that.

1 MR. FOSTER: And that document to me at least raises a
2 question as to what they were actually mailed,

3 THE COURT: Let me go back to your first one, to your
4 procedural posture here.

5 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir.

6 THE COURT: I ruled against them.

7 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir.

8 THE COURT: They were served with -- they were served
9 with the order.

10 MR. FOSTER: Yes.

11 THE COURT: Within the requisite time to receipt of 12 that they sent this letter dated, which I have in the file
13 here, dated February the 7th.

14 MR. FOSTER: To yourself, to the Court and to Mr.
15 Melville.

16 THE COURT: And what you're saying is that -- let me
17 be sure I'm speaking correctly. You're saying that that
18 puts them in a procedural position of having made a 59 (E)
19 motion.

20 MR. FOSTER: Yes.

21 THE COURT: Not having to make a 60 (B) motion to just 22 turn the judgment upside down.

23 MR. FOSTER: Yes, although I do argue they would be 24 eligible under both standards.

25 THE COURT: The position that they're taking even

1 under 59(E) would not permit them to introduce new
2 evidence. 59(E) rests on the record, does it not?

3 I guess what I'm saying is this is new.

4 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir. Well -

5 THE COURT: Because I asked them -- I've forgotten the 6 exchange. I don't recall that they presented anything to 7 me like this.

8 MR. FOSTER: No, sir, I don't believe they did. They 9 argued simply their statements to you. I'm going by the 10 fact that I was sitting behind -

11 THE COURT: I understand. I understand.

12 MR. FOSTER: No, sir, that was not presented, that is 13 quite true.

14 THE COURT: Okay. All right. Go ahead.

15 Well, I mean, I understand what you're saying.
16 Anything else?

17 MR. FOSTER: Well, I argue -

18 THE COURT: I understand your position.

19 MR. FOSTER: I argued, of course, their pro se was -- 20 their pro se status in the matter. They obviously were not 21 capable of understanding any conceivable effect of that
22 document, if it has any. And I again repeat what I said
23 before which is, what is required of any defendant to prove 24 a negative?

25 THE COURT: I believe that in many ways the rule puts

1 them in that position.

2 MR. FOSTER: I would only say to Your Honor that also
3 puts the Court in a position to administer what it sees as 4 equitable.

5 THE COURT: All right. Mr. Melville, let's go back to 6 the beginning. Tell me about this service. I'm trying to 7 reconstruct this in my mind.

8 MR. MELVILLE: If we need to go back, obviously I
9 would object to the argument that the letter of February
10 7th was a motion for 59 -- a Rule 59 motion so I just want
11 to put that on the record that I did have a notice of that 12 at - -

13 THE COURT: Well, let's assume for the moment that it 14 is.

15 MR. MELVILLE: Okay. I'll go back to that just since 16 you requested it. We actually -- that was discussed at the 17 hearing.

18 THE COURT: What was discussed?

19 MR. MELVILLE: The document, the -

20 THE COURT: The March 5th - - -

21 MR. MELVILLE: Correct.

22 THE COURT: - - - 2010, letter?

23 MR. MELVILLE: Correct. Basically, and as I discussed
24 there, the factual background for that is that at that 25 moment there were multiple defendants. Mr. Bradford was

1 representing, I forget the other names of the defendants at 2 that moment.

3 MR. FOSTER: Cowers.

4 MR. MELVILLE: And so I served -- since the Gviannots
5 had served an Answer they're entitled to be on services
6 with an attorney for any of the correspondence. So they 7 received -- on the same day I sent out a request for 8 production, interrogatories to Mr. Bradford for the other
9 defendants. That was the same day that I sent Request for 10 Admissions, Request for Production and interrogatories to 11 the Gviannots. So that explains why they have a copy of 12 that.

13 THE COURT: Mr. Foster, I'm looking at the motion --
14 the package, the original motion package.

15 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir.

16 THE COURT: And it has a second -- whereas what you
17 handed me is addressed to Mr. Bradford with copies to Mr.
18 and Mrs. Giannotos, which apparently they received. This
19 letter is addressed to Mr. And Mrs. Giannotos of the same
20 date at the same address to which the letter to Mr.
21 Bradford was sent a - -

22 MR. FOSTER: I've seen the letter, sir. It's in the 23 file.

24 THE COURT: And they received it on the -- they said
25 that they received what you handed me.

1 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir. That is what they had told me.

2 THE COURT: What you handed me, which was material
3 sent to Mr. Bradford - - -

4 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir.

5 THE COURT: - - - as well as copies to Mr. And Mrs.
6 Gviannots.

7 MR. FOSTER: That is apparently what -

8 THE COURT: It also was sent to Stacey and Lucas
9 Giannotos at 1416 Sage Stone Court, Charlotte 28260.

10 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir.

11 THE COURT: By letter of the same date addressed only
12 to the Giannotos with a copy to Mr. Bradford with a
13 different cover letter.

14 MR. FOSTER: Yes, that's what I understand. I've seen
15 the cover letter. It's in the file.

16 THE COURT: Serving the request for admission. There
17 is a Certificate of Service saying that the -- that those 18 documents, their Request for Admissions and other material,
19 was sent to them at the same address that I just read from 20 the other document.

21 MR. FOSTER: Yes.

22 THE COURT: On the same day.

23 MR. FOSTER: Yes, sir.

24 THE COURT: Okay.

25 MR. FOSTER: In fact, I believe you -

1 THE COURT: And you're saying they're saying they
2 didn't get that.

3 MR. FOSTER: Say it adamantly, yes, sir.

4 THE COURT: I understand.

5 Go ahead.

6 MR. MELVILLE: Okay. And if I would have -- if I may 7 get kind of to the heart of this, and it's kind of apparent
8 now in that basically Mr. Foster is arguing what it boils
9 down to is he is discussing what probably should have been 10 discussed and actually was discussed at the Motion for 11 Summary Judgment. I mean, there was a hearing on the 12 Motion for Summary Judgment.

13 THE COURT: Yes, sir.

14 MR. MELVILLE: These issues are all issues, if not 15 discussed there, they -- that was the forum for discussing
16 them, and once the order was in place, you know, once you
17 had everything in front of you, Your Honor made a decision
18 and entered the judgment. So I would argue that, getting
19 back to what is really at issue, if this idea of excusable
20 neglect, which is not really addressed in this one, but I
21 wanted to address it here because the Request for 22 Admissions basically is there's -- after, even if we 23 assume, let's say, they didn't get this, or we go that far
24 in this case, which I'm not saying that that's the case,
25 but if we just assume for the purpose of this motion that

1 for some reason it got lost in the mail as he said, under 2 the procedural rules once -- they definitely got notice of 3 the hearing. We know that.

4 So in terms of excusable neglect, there was a three-
5 week period where they could have made a motion to amend or 6 withdraw the admissions. They could have done procedural 7 things prior to the summary judgment motion, which would
8 have at least put everything in front of the other. What 9 I'm arguing is this is not the proper way to challenge what
10 should have been dealt with before the Motion for Summary
11 Judgment, they had a hearing on the Motion for Summary
12 Judgment.

13 Presenting affidavits after the order's already
14 entered, this is akin to an attempt to trying to basically
15 get a second bite at the apple is the way I feel about 16 this. And without getting into too much law, I would just 17 say that fair not under the 60 (B) and excusable neglect,
18 the case law is that a party has a duty to monitor the 19 progress of his case. Lack of familiarity with legal 20 proceedings is unacceptable, and the Court will not -- will 21 not hold a layman to any lesser standard than is applied to 22 an attorney.

23 So the way I look at it is if this -- if Mr. Foster
24 had been the attorney, which he was not at the time, at the 25 time of the motion -- the hearing on the Motion for Summary

1 Judgement, and all this was argued there in the same way it
2 was argued, basically this would just be re -- I mean, it's
3 kind of rearguing the same thing. And I feel that any
4 break that would be given would be because the defendants
5 were acting pro se at the time, but the case law -- and 6 giving them relief because maybe they didn't follow every 7 procedural rule they should have and present all the 8 evidence that maybe could have put forward. Whether or not
9 it would change your opinion, I'm not sure, but basically
10 that's kind of what the argument is getting to, is that had 11 they been represented, maybe things would have been 12 differently. But under the law, that fair or not, that 13 doesn't change the fact that the neglect -- if there is any 14 neglect, that is not -- it doesn't fall under the category
15 of excusable.

16 And I think that really explains the Plaintiff's
17 position here.

18 THE COURT: All right. Brief reply)

19 MR. FOSTER: Very briefly, I would simply cite to the 20 Court, this may or may not seem relevant to the Court, but 21 I'm going to hand it up. I did manage to look up some of 22 the requirements about service with regard to default
23 judgments, which, of course, have the same type of language
24 that we're urging here, which is the need of the Court to 25 reach the issues involved. And I believe the fact that we

1 argue in here with pro se clients, I don't think anyone can
2 claim that there's been an attempt to provoke harm or to
3 cause delay on the part of the Plaintiff.

4 THE COURT: No.

5 MR. FOSTER This is simply a case of whether there is 6 a factual, an honest factual dispute about whether a
7 document was received. And to the extent it makes a
8 different report, I will inform, and I trust that Mr.
9 Melville will agree, that we have supplied answers to these
10 requests to him this week, as soon as I was engaged.

11 THE COURT: I'm still not for sure about considering -
12 -let's say it this way. If I considered the motion as made
13 under 59 (E) based on their February 7th letter, the 14 standard would be that they would ask me to alter or amend 15 the judgment based upon some error of law or failure to 16 address in the order some issue that was raised that would
17 have been, may have been dispositive in their favor. I
18 find no such error of law or failure to address an issue.

19 Thus, if we treat it as a 59(E) motion, the motion is 20 denied. If we treat it as a 60 (B) motion, I find that 21 there is no excusable neglect. Oh, and by the way, 59 (E), 22 there's no new evidence presented -- there can be no new
23 evidence presented for the Court's consideration.

24 Having reviewed, however, what you've presented and 25 having looked again at the documentation that went with the

1 motion, I find two things: One, no excusable neglect for
2 failure to deal with it in an appropriate way on the part
3 of defendants. Number two, there's been no showing of any 4 -- There's been no satisfactory explanation to rebut the 5 presumption that arises by reason of the service in 6 accordance with the rule. So I deny the motion.

7 However, in fact, I -- this would be, but it seems to 8 me the fact that they received something on the same day
9 from the same law firm at the same address as the recorded
10 Request for Admissions, on the same day they were sent to 11 the same -- from the same law firm at the same address
12 seems to tighten the noose rather than loosen it.

13 Now, e-mail me an order, please.

14 MR. MELVILLE: Thank you, Your Honor.
