Clerk, South Carolina Court of Appeals

RE: The State v. Michael Mealor
Appellate Case No: 2013-002752

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am in receipt of Appellant motion to remand for reconstruction and subsequent request to hold the motion to remand and the appeal in abeyance while he communicates with the court reporters to determine whether back-up equipment or other means are available to transcribe portions of the trial transcript marked "undiscernible." Please be advised that I consent to and agree with Appellant's request to hold the motion to remand and appeal in abeyance while he determines whether the missing portions of the trial transcript might be available from back-up tapes or other means before proceeding with a hearing to reconstruct the record.

Please hold the time for my return to the motion to remand in abeyance while the parties determine whether the remand is necessary.

Sincerely,

Salley W. Elliott
Senior Assistant Deputy Attorney General
