Re: State v. Daniel Lopez,
Appellate Case No. 2013-000903

Dear Ms. Allen:

I am in receipt of your letter indicating the above referenced case may be reached during the February 2015 term of court. Please be advised that I have a reconstruction hearing scheduled for Monday, February 9, 2015 at 10:30 am in Beaufort before the Honorable Carmen T. Mullen in the State v. Terrance Seabrook. Because the first two days of Mr. Seabrook's trial, including all of the testimony, was unable to be transcribed, the hearing to reconstruct the record could last several days. Therefore, I may have a scheduling conflict on February 10-12, 2015. Regardless, I do not want this to cause oral arguments not to be scheduled in this case. Thus, if necessary, I will notify Judge Mullen if a scheduling conflict exists as oral arguments in this Court takes precedence over the reconstruction hearing.

If you require additional information, please do not hesitate to contact me.

Sincerely,

Lara M. Caudy
Appellate Defender
