Aaron Jay Carter
Appellant

To: The Honorable Clerk of S.C. Court of Appeals

Now Comes The (pro se) Appellant Above named who hereby appeals the decision and or order dismissing the matter,

CASE History

The matter went before The Aiken County GSC Court on a motion to dismiss pursuant to The Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act and The And The order of June 24, 2013, denying Appellants motion for reconsideration. Because Appellant failed to timely serve the notice of appeal on Respondent as set forth in Rule 203 (b)(2) of The S.C.A.C.R.

The Appellant subsequently filed this appeal to the Administrative law court in an attempt to seek relief in the matter, the issues that are to be entertained are expressly stated herein to wit on March 28th 2014, Appellant filed a pro se notice of appeal from the circuit court's order of April 25th, 2013 denying Appellant's motion to dismiss pursuant to the Interstate Agreement on Detainers Act and the order of June 24th, 2013, denying Appellant's motion for reconsideration. Because Appellant allegedly failed to timely serve the notice of appeal on Respondent as set forth in Rule 203(b)(2) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules the appeal was dismissed on June 16th, 2014. However, the Appellant argues that he shall enjoy the benefit of Houston v. Lack and that this court is in another jurisdiction therefore I shall enjoy the privilege to seek relief, the Appellant's arguments will be elucidated at the time of filing briefs pursuant to Rule # 60 (A) of the SCACR, the court erred in dismissing my appeal when (I) timely filed the initial notice of appeal. Thus violating my 14th Amend. Right to protection under the laws.

Re: The State v. Aaron J. Carter
Appellate Case No. 2014-000697

Dear Mr. Carter:

The Court has received your motion to reinstate this appeal. It has come to our attention that you are represented in this matter by Wallis April Alves. Pursuant to Rule 264 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, the attorney of record in the court below remains counsel on appeal until withdrawal is approved. Because you are represented by counsel, we are returning your filings to you. See Miller v. State, 388 S.C. 347, 347, 697 S.E.2d 527, 527 (2010) ("Since there is no right to 'hybrid representation' that is partially pro se and partially by counsel, substantive documents, with the exception of motions to relieve counsel, filed pro se by a person represented by counsel are not to be accepted unless submitted by counsel."). If your attorney would like to file a motion to reinstate your appeal, it must be actually received by this Court within 15 days of the date of this letter or your appeal will be remitted to the circuit court.

Very truly yours,
