

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Fairway Townes Owners Association, Inc., Appellant, v.

NVR, Inc., Stonecutt LLC, Lake Builders, Inc., Hans Construction Company Inc., McGee Brothers Company, Inc., Howe & Simpson Contracting LLC, Alpha Omega Construction Group, Inc., MI Windows and Doors, Inc., and James Thompson, Defendants,

Of whom MI Windows and Doors, Inc. is the Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2014-001439

ORDER

Samuel W. Outten has filed a motion to be relieved as counsel, explaining his representation of MI Windows and Doors, Inc., has concluded because he has left Womble Carlyle Sandridge & Rice, LLP, but MI Windows and Doors will remain represented by its counsel of record, Charles Baker. The motion is granted.

Appellant has filed a consent motion to dismiss this appeal "due to the complete and final settlement of all matters." We construe the motion as a motion to voluntarily withdraw the appeal and grant the motion. The remittitur will be sent as provided in Rule 221(b), SCACR.

FOR THE COURT

Columbia, South Carolina

FILED

SF
11/20/14

cc:

W. Jefferson Leath, Jr., Esquire

Samuel W. Outten, Esquire

Hugh McCorkle Claytor, Esquire

Michael S. Seekings, Esquire

Charles J. Baker, III, Esquire