Dear Ms. Hunt:

I've been informed that your my attorney is a appellant Pro bono Project. I am writing to inform you that I've found a great many of things, in my trial transcripts. I'll forward you things that can win my Appeal.
As I've told Mr. Dudek, the great advocate John W. Davis said "go for the jugular", I expect us to do the exact same. Moreover the Prosecutor's in my case asserted that I murdered the victim.
(A.P. 65, lines 5-6, A.P. 458 lines 23-25, A.P. 478, line 13) See U.S.V. Wilson, 135 F.3d 291, 297-99 (4th Cir. 1998) Prosecutor's Closing arguments that defendant had committed murder improper because remarks were unsupported by record, misled jury, and were prominent and well developed; also see U.S.V. Conrad 320 F.3d 251, 256 (8th Cir 2003) Conviction reversed because Prosecutor's improper remarks during trial had cumulative effect that "substantially impaired the defendant's right" to a fair trial. Evidence against defendant was not overwhelming.
