

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

T. Terell Bryan, #254638, Petitioner, v.

South Carolina Department of Corrections, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2014-001645

ORDER

Pursuant to Rule 242 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), petitioner sought review of the decision of the South Carolina Court of Appeals in this case.¹ By order dated August 6, 2014, this Court denied the petition for a writ of certiorari, and the Court of Appeals properly sent the remittitur on August 13, 2014. Rule 221, SCACR ("If a petition for writ of certiorari is filed, the Court of Appeals shall not send the remittitur until notified that the petition has been denied.").

Petitioner has now filed a document that has been construed as a petition for rehearing regarding this Court's denial of the petition for a writ of certiorari.

Rule 221(a) of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR) states: "No petition for rehearing shall be allowed from an order denying a petition for a writ of certiorari under Rule 242, SCACR." Therefore, the petition for rehearing is improper.

Further, the sending of the remittitur ended appellate jurisdiction over this case, and no further motions or petitions can be considered in this matter. Wise v. S.C. Dept. of Corr., 372 S.C. 173, 642 S.E.2d 551 (2007).

Accordingly, the petition for rehearing is hereby stricken and dismissed.
