

The Supreme Court of South Carolina

Kevin C. Casey, Petitioner,

v.

State of South Carolina, Respondent.

Appellate Case No. 2014-002444

Lower Court Case No. 2012CP4204389

ORDER

Petitioner has served and filed an "objection" with this Court seeking review of a circuit court order dated November 24, 2014. This filing has been construed as a notice of appeal. See Rule 243 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR) (review in post-conviction relief (PCR) case is commenced by serving and filing a notice of appeal).

Since the order of November 24, 2014, is not the final decision or judgment in this PCR case, the notice of appeal is dismissed without prejudice. Lewis v. State, 368 S.C. 630, 630 S.E.2d 464 (2006) (By court rule and statute, "only a final decision or judgment in a post-conviction relief action is subject to review. 'Any judgment or decree, leaving some further act to be done by the court before the rights of the parties are determined, is interlocutory; but if it so completely fixes the rights of the parties that the court has nothing further to do in the action, then it is final. [citations omitted]' "). The remittitur will be sent as provided by Rule 221, SCACR.
