RE: Arrowpoint Capital Corporation v. SC Second Injury Fund
Appellate Case No.: 2014-002215
Lower Court No.: 2013-CP-43-02284

Joe Mathis v. Yuasa-Exide, Inc and Arrowpoint Capital Corp
Date of Accident: July 31, 1999
WCC File No.: 9930459
Our File No.: 20113.14171
Claim No.: 715001269300

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

I am in receipt of your letter, dated November 18, 2014, wherein you have requested further information regarding receipt, or failure thereof, to receive the hearing transcript. The notice of appeal in this matter appears to have been filed on or about October 6, 2014.

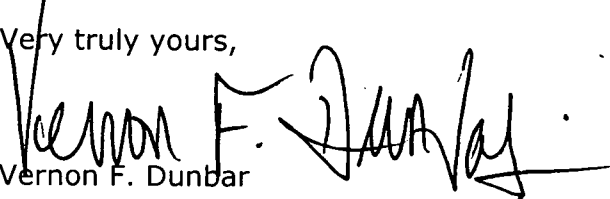

On October 23, 2014, my office was informed by the court reporter, Margaret Sullivan, that it would be "awhile before I can type this because of my backlog. We are allowed automatic 60 days, plus an additional 30 as needed." In light of that correspondence, on October 28, 2014, I sent a letter to your office explaining the correspondence that we had received and that we would submit our initial brief within 30 days following receipt of the transcript. I have attached a copy of that letter for your review.

To date, we have not received the transcript from the court reporter, and according to my reading of Rule 207, she still has a while before the transcript is due. As soon as we receive the hearing transcript, we will file our initial briefs in a timely fashion thereafter.

If you have any questions whatsoever, please do not hesitate to contact me at any time.

The Honorable Jenny Abbott Kitchings

Staci,

I am in receipt of your transcript request. It will be awhile before I can type this, because of my backlog. We are allowed automatic 60 days, plus additional 30 as needed.

Sincerely,

Margaret T. Sullivan

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Appellants in the above-referenced matter recently requested the transcript from the hearing below from the Sumter County Circuit Court. We received word last week from the court reporter, Margaret T. Sullivan, that her backlog is quite extensive, and it will be some time before she can provide us with the transcript. Pursuant to Rule 208 of the Appellate Court Rules, Appellants will plan to submit their Initial Brief and Designation of Matter within thirty days following the receipt of this transcript.

Should you have any questions or concerns, please feel free to contact my office.

With kind and warm regards, I remain

Very truly yours,

Vernon F. Dunbar
