

South Carolina Court of Appeals

Justin Turner #330518,
Appellant,
v.
South Carolina Department of Corrections,
Respondent.

Motion for Extension

RECEIVED

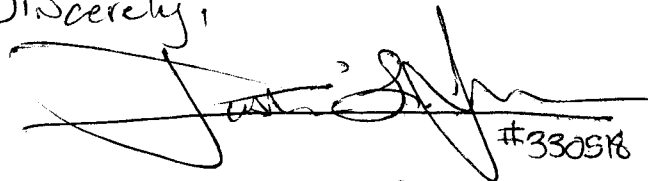

DEC 05 2014

SC Court of Appeals

I received your reply today on Dec. 2, 2014, when the mailroom states it received it on Nov. 26, 2014 which killed (7) seven days to reply back to the (10) ten day deadline to correct the deficiencies regarding my appeal on Appellate Case No's.: 2014-002512, 2014-002508, 2014-002510, and 2014-002522. Even if I had (10) ten days that is still not long enough to get everything together because I am incarcerated and time moves slower back here. For instance it would take me approximately (7) seven days just to get into the law library to look up your codes. Also I am indigent so I wouldn't be able to pay anything, how would I proceed? Plus I don't have a lawyer and am "law illiterate" and need help. Also I did not send a copy to the Administrative Law Court due to I am "law illiterate" and I apologize for that but I need a copy that I sent to you so I can make copies to send to the A.L.C. because the law library don't let me make copies so I will have to hand write all of them to the A.L.C. also but I don't have any copies myself not knowing what to do. Please give me time to correct this and send copies back to me so I can send to the A.L.C.. Thank you for your time.

Justin Turner #330518
L.C.I.
Cpt - S cell 2253
990 Wisacky Hwy.
Dismppville, SC 29010

Sincerely,

#330518

cc: Administrative Law Court

Justin Turner #330516
L.C.F.
Che-S cell 2253
990 Wiscachy Hwy.
Bishopville, SC 29010

South Carolina Court of Appeals
Jenny Abbott Kitchings, Clerk
P.O. Box 11629
Columbia, SC 29211

RECEIVED

DEC 05 2014

SC Court of Appeals

Legal Mail