Re: State v. Regan Berkley Chrisley
Appellate Case No.: 2013-000696

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

Please allow this letter to serve as notice to this Court that, regrettably, our client Regan Berkley Chrisley is deceased. Formal filing for probate of Mr. Chrisley's estate, along with efforts to have a Personal Representative (P.R.) appointed that could continue to act in pursuit of the estate's interests, has not yet occurred. Nevertheless, Mr. Chrisley's mother, who is being provided a copy of this correspondence via Mr. Henderson, has indicated to us previously that she intends to seek appointment as the P.R. in the near future.

We believed notice to this Court was required at this time, however, and will update the Court as to that effort, whether completed or abandoned, as soon as possible. It is our understanding that the above-referenced pending appeal could only be continued through completion if the P.R. for the estate were formally substituted as a party to this matter. If that understanding is in error, or the Court has a further immediate directive regarding this situation, please contact our office and we will endeavor to respond as quickly as possible.

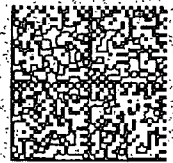

With warm personal regards, I am,

Sincerely yours,

Harvey M. Watson III
