RE: Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. v. Dorothy Sistrunk
Civil Action Case #2008-CP-38-1024
Appellate Case #2014-001683

Ms. Kitchings and/or Ms. V. Claire Allen,

I am still new at this so...please advise me of errors and/or any incorrect protocol. This letter is to acknowledge receiving Deputy Clerk of Court V. Claire Allen's explanation and clarification of Respondent Wells Fargo's "Request" to Extend Time to file the Initial Brief and Designation of Matters for the Record on Appeal. Deputy Clerk of Court Allen's letter also parallels my husband's conclusion that authorization may be an IOP (Internal Operating Procedure) that is not mandatory or required to be included in South Carolina's Rules of Civil Procedure or in the Appellate Court's Rules.

Further, I would like to thank Deputy Clerk of Court Allen for her expeditious (with speed and efficiency) and the truly professional manner in which my request for information relative to Wells Fargo's "Request" was handled and answered. Deputy Clerk of Court Allen's timely explanation will be considered as answering the concerns I expressed in my letters dated, December 1st, 9th, & December 10th, 2014. Deputy Clerk of Court V. Claire Allen's letter is dated December 09, 2014 {See Attached Exhibit 374}

THE MATTER OF WELLS FARGO'S "REQUEST" TO EXTEND TIME IS CONSIDERED CLOSED WITH NO OBJECTION TO EXTENSION OF TIME

As stated on page 2, in paragraph #2, in my letter dated, December 10, 2014, based on my husband's research and explanation, I have no objections to Respondent Wells Fargo's "Request" to Extend Time and I am satisfied that it is a procedure and/or policy of the Appellate Court and not any preferential treatment for Wells Fargo Bank.

Therefore, for all practical purposes this matter is closed.

NO RESPONSE NECESSARY

There is no need for the Clerk of Court or the Deputy Clerk of Court to respond to this "Acknowledgement" and "Receipt". The matter is closed.

GREETINGS FOR THE UPCOMING HOLIDAY SEASON

Since this is nearing the end of 2014, I would like to take this opportunity to extend my best wishes for the upcoming holiday season: A MERRY CHRISTMAS and a HAPPY NEW YEAR for all the members in the Clerk of Court's office at South Carolina's Appellate Court. These well wishes extend to the Appellate Court Judges and their staff; as well as, to Respondent Wells Fargo Bank, N.A. and all their past and present attorneys at Nelson Mullins Riley & Scarborough, LLP and Rogers Townsend & Thomas PC (mailed separately). Finally, a special thanks to the members of the Clerk of Court's office for your service to the State of South Carolina and its Judicial System.

Re: Wells Fargo Bank v. Dorothy Sistrunk
Appellate Case No. 2014-001683

Dear Ms. Sistrunk:

This office is in receipt of your letter of December 1, 2014. Mr. Anzelmo's letter of November 25, 2014, was a letter request for a first extension of time. It is the Court's policy to accept a first extension request by letter and to grant such a request whether or not there is opposition. This policy applies to all parties and only applies to a first extension request. The motion fee must accompany the letter request. If you need a first extension, you may follow the same procedure, and the extension will be granted.

Very truly yours,

V. Claire Allen, Deputy
