SC Court of Appeals

Motion to quash

Order. Grant New Trial

James B. Curry
Appellant,

dated December, 4th, 2014.

Because of Fraudulent
Information within...

Applicant, James B. Curry hereby request the South Carolina Court of appeals to quash the order signed on December, 4th, 2014, by Judge Gibbons, on the grounds of Fraudulent information within the order, which prejudices the Applicants appeal process because the order is captioned in the wrong Court, Applicant appeared in General Sessions on November, 5th, 2014 in Chester Co, and argued against Solicitor Douglas Barfield, Applicant also moves the Court to quash the order because on page #2 it states the date of Applicants Second PCR was dismissed on October, 1st, 2012 by Judge Goldsmith, the correct information is December 19th, 2013 by Judge Clifton Newman, Applicants grounds on the Second PCR was a Confession from the perpetrator who committed the crime for which Applicant was wrongfully convicted, if the Court will notice on page #2. all five of the grounds is listed in RE: to Applicants First PCR, But only states the defendant alleged he was being held in custody unlawfully for the following reasons #1 Newly discovered evidence. ^(Note) This was done intentionally to keep the fact covered up that someone else confessed in RE: to Applicants Second PCR, Therefore I request this court to grant a new trial in the interest of Justice.
