Subject: Midlands Property v. Yolanda Shatten Appeal

Dear Ms. Greene:

Pursuant to our telephone conversation this morning, I am writing to confirm that I am not handling the above-referenced appeal from Magistrate's Court. It appears that an appeal has been filed in this matter and that my name has been mistakenly associated with the same. In this regard, I am writing to clarify that I am not the attorney on this matter. My only involvement with this case was the filing of a Rule 59 motion in Magistrate's Court. If an appeal is currently pending with my name as the attorney it should be dismissed.

If you have any other questions regarding this matter, please do not hesitate to contact me. With kind regards, I am

Sincerely,
Joseph Henry
