

The State

v.

William T Watts II

Appellate Case no. 2013-000177

I William T Watts II am requesting additional time to correct the deficiencies in my notice of appeal. I am asking for an additional 10 days. I received the letter to correct the deficiencies on Jan. 31, 2013 at 7pm. I asked the correctional officers what options did I have for proof of service and I received an answer of "I don't know". I asked about certified mail and have a police officer deliver the notice. McDaniel supply company informed me I could send certified mail on Feb. 1, 2013 at 5pm. Lexington County Detention Center does not send mail on Saturday and Sunday. On Mon Feb 4, 2013 McDaniel supply company informed me that my letters were not with the forms requesting them to be sent certified mail. The correctional officer had separated the letters from the forms. I am attempting to send them again. If my attorney was not ineffective, I could hope that she sent notice but I have not received anything from her.

Thank you,

William T Watts II
