Please Review the attach sentencing sheet and Indictment, The Indictment has a CDR code 424 for Attempt. The sentencing sheet has a line threw 424 and has 1151. My concern is 424 supports the Indictment, therefore is this number show on the Computer as the CDR code for Attempt.

BY STAFF MEMBER You were sentenced to a CDR code of 1151, statute which is for the crime of "Attempt" of the principal offense. the principal offense is "Kidnapping". Your Kidnapping has as "Attempt to commit" per characted code for database, because you were sentenced the offense carries the same penalties ? Kidnapping

Request for a custody review; so to determine the imposed sentence for violating 16-1-80 attempt. [see attached sentence sheet(s)]

I believe S.C.D.C. classification [In Columbia] has misinterpret the sentence imposed by the Trial Court due to the verbiage Attempted Kidnapping cited on sentence sheet. It is my understanding that the sentence imposed is in violation of 16-1-80 of the S.C. Code of Law. Therefore according to the statute 16-1-80 the offense itself is not a Felony. In addition, upon examining the Trial transcript there is no statute Attempted Kidnapping just Attempt. Therefore base on this information I Request for a custody Review Hearing, so to determine the Imposed sentence. see attached sentence sheets (two)

DISPOSITION BY STAFF MEMBER:

The statute 16-1-80 matches what it is in the computer.

INMATE'S REASON FOR APPEAL (state specific dissatisfaction):

Warden Cartledge and Perry Classification personnel are not recognizing C.D.R. codes and statutes that are cited on Indictment sheet are different from the C.R.T. entry. Furthermore, the Indictment sheet, requested from Marlboro County by P.C.I., classification does not support Warrant # M-075185, see attached Warrant. Therefore the sentence sheet Mr. Norman destroyed had this warrant #M-075185 on it, that cited a different C.D.R. code from the Indictment sheet S.C.D.C. received from Marlboro County. Also Warrant # M075185 is shown in the C.R.T., ~~the~~ The Indictment sheet has MAR 008.

Your sentencing sheet was corrected by the courts to show a CDR code of 1151 which is correctly entered into the CRT. You have been provided with copies of your sentencing sheets since the copies you provided to classification staff were not original returned to you. The Office of General Counsel did contact the solicitor who confirmed your sentence and CDR code is being correctly interpreted by the SC Department of Corrections and also confirmed the correction to the warrant number on the sentencing sheets was done by the courts.

Therefore, your grievance is denied.

Grievant Reason For Appeal is as Followed; Warden Cartledge and Perry classification personnel are not recognizing C. D. Furthermore, The Indictment sheet does not contain a CDR code of 1151 Attempted Kidnapping which is the Ambiguity of this Classification subject matter. WARDEN'S DECISION AND REASON:

Inmate Campbell, John 228072

This is in reference to PCI-1249-13. All pertinent information has been reviewed.

IGC Hindenburg has researched your Wardens Jacket and spoke to classification. Ms. Ogunbile and Mr. Norman verified that they did request a copy of your indictment sheet and delivered it to you in SMU. The indictment sheet and CRT entry both show that you have a 15 year sentence for Attempted Kidnapping. Both Kidnapping & Attempted Kidnapping are classified as violent offenses. The original charge code on your case was 0095 and it was reduced to a 1151 however it still is classified as a felony and violent. As for your custody review, when you are released from SMU you will be scheduled for ICC.

Based on this information, I consider your grievance to be resolved. If not satisfied with my response, see Step 5 below.

On the above date and approximate times Cpl. L. Black called me to the room where orientation was taken place to talk with inmate John Campbell # 228072.

The inmate said "Mr. Norman threw away his paperwork." Mr. Norman said it was by mistake and he gave him a copy of what was in his Warden's locket. I told the inmate that SCDC enter the CDR Code and stature number in the Computer. According to Mr. Norman when I looked at the paperwork with him on 05/21/13; it was the one the inmate gave him. The CDR code and stature were the same. I told the inmate if he gets another paperwork I will check if it is the same or not. He can come and see at any time.
