Dear Daniel E Stearns Esq.:

On Dec 4 2013 an oral argument was held in reference to Appellate Case # 2011-195272.

In inquiring to whether or not, the briefs that were actually prepared by my Appellate Defense Counsel David Alexander were reviewed by the SC Supreme Court Justice. did it enter into consideration along with counsel oral arguments?

Because the briefs he put together consist of fact that would lead a reasonable person to believe that the trial judge impartiality might reasonably be questioned, in which the facts include inference of Judicial Bias in which I know would take more than 10 minutes to present. It is my understanding that the oral argument was about precedent, whether or not Stall v. Floyd should apply to per counsel being allowed to present as trial counsel in the same case. Where my counsel did not present evidence of Judicial Bias, that is presented in his brief.

So my question is, did SC Supreme Court also review the briefs in arriving to their

If this is the case, the Briefs were not considered, I am requesting that the CD of the oral argument be provided to me. I'm allow to have the CD if it comes from the SC Supreme Court, because it will be considered legal material. It will be reviewed by Contraband Here at P.C.F. to determine if it legal material. If it is, which it is, then I will be allowed to listen to it. Then it will be placed in my property. I know if they have CD with movies on them, and Religious CD, that I'm not can have CD if they are legal material and are sent from the Government. I need a copy of the CD to review for and issue against my SCCID Division of Appellate Defense Counsel David Alexander pending P.C.F. case 2014-CP-03-00589 Greenville County Court of Common Pleas. attached is an affidavit of indigency.
Requesting waiving fee for production of a copy of the CD of the oral argument for case #27334.
