Re: Javon Rivers v. State
Appellate Case No. 2013-002647

Dear Mr. Rivers:

In light of your response dated December 17, 2014, we are marking our records to reflect that you are now proceeding pro se in this matter. Your pro se petition for a writ of certiorari must be served and filed within forty-five days of the date of this letter. There is no need to file a new appendix since this Court will use the appendix previously filed in this matter.

In preparing the petition, please be sure to adhere to the requirements of Rules 243(e) and 267 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules. As an exception to Rule 267, this Court will accept a handwritten petition from you as long as it is legible and proper margins are maintained.

We are also marking our records to reflect that the Division of Appellate Defense will remain associated in this matter for the limited purpose of copying your pro se petition for a writ of certiorari, and serving and filing those copies. To give Appellate Defense time to make any necessary copies, your petition should be sent to Appellate Defense at least five (5) days prior to the due date.

Very truly yours,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to be a stylized name followed by a long horizontal flourish.

CLERK
