Dear Attorney's —
S.C. Court of Appeals

I thank the Court's and Attorney's for the recent correspondence informing me of the deadline of my initial brief which is suppose to be submitted on Dec 8, 2014. I have some very important issues that I would like to place before the court and my Attorney's. I would like to ask if my Attorney can file for an extension of time for a couple reasons. 1st reason why is cause my transcript has been altered in many places which changes its legal effect. During my pre-trial there were important matters I brought to the judge that's missing, also other parts twisted, it was transcribed by Pamela E. Green, and Maggie Woods as the original court reporter. I asked that the reporter could be subpoena with the audio of my trial to reconstruct my transcript properly, because its a violation of due process of law and my equal protection of rights. 2ndly, the reason why I need an extension is for time to research and prepare my documents that will contain issues & litigation to go along with the initial brief. Extraordinary circumstances apply to this case that has been submitted. I thank you all greatly.
