Re: Tri-County Dev. v. Pierce, Chris (2) AND
Tri-County Development v. Christopher Pierce (4)
Appellate Case No.: 2011-202946

Dear Ms. Allen:

Thank you for taking the time to speak with me today concerning the February dates for oral arguments in the above referenced matter.

Unfortunately, due to a glitch with our computers, Mr. Dudley's calendar did not "sync" with my office calendar and I was unaware that he has a family vacation planned to be in Costa Rica from February 11 through February 16 and that the airline tickets for him, his wife and all five (5) children had already been purchased. As such, he will not be available on February 11 or 12, 2015 for oral argument. It is one of my responsibilities to maintain the office calendars and handle all scheduling for Mr. Dudley. Because of the issues with our computers, all of the dates listed in your November 13th letter were open from what I was able to ascertain.

While I understand the deadline for informing the court of any potential conflicts has past, it would be greatly appreciated if there was any way we could obtain protection for Mr. Dudley on February 11 and 12. He is available on the other dates, ie, February 2, 3, 5, and 10. I sincerely apologize for any inconvenience to the court and opposing counsel.

Thank you very much for your assistance and consideration in this matter. Please do not hesitate to contact our office if you have any questions.

Very truly yours,

KENISON, DUDLEY & CRAWFORD, LLC
