

South Carolina Court of Appeals. 12/28/14

My name is Shaine David Fischer. I was sentenced to 30 years on November 13, 2014. I feel that the sentence I was given is too harsh of a punishment. I gave my full cooperation to Anderson County Sheriff's Department. By giving them a written statement and also by showing them where the murder actually happened. My attorney Andrew Potter convinced me that by taking an open plea for O-15 on both counts was the best way to handle my case. I was led to believe by him that I would not receive anywhere near the max sentence. I hope you honor my appeal and thank you for considering my letter.
