RESPONDENTS' THIRD MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME TO FILE AND SERVE INITIAL BRIEF AND DESIGNATION OF MATTER

NOTE: APPELLANT DOES NOT OBJECT TO THIS MOTION**

TO: THE HONORABLE JUDGES OF THE SOUTH CAROLINA
COURT OF APPEALS

COME NOW Respondents above named, by and through their undersigned counsel, pursuant to Rules 240 and 263, SCACR, and, upon the grounds set forth herein, move this Honorable Court for a 10-day extension of Respondents' present deadline (which is January 7, 2015) to file and serve their initial brief and corresponding designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal.

1. Appellant served its initial brief on October 7, 2014, making the deadline for Respondents' initial brief and designation of matter November 6, 2014, pursuant to Rules 208(a)(2) and 209(a), SCACR.

2. By Orders of this Court dated November 12, 2014, and December 17, 2014, Respondents' deadline for filing and serving their initial brief and designation of matter was extended. As established by the most recent of these Orders, the present deadline is January 7, 2015.

3. The undersigned is, of course, aware that the Court's December 17, 2014, Order advised that "[n]o further extensions will be granted absent extraordinary circumstances," and the undersigned does not make the instant motion lightly.

4. Rather, and, to be sure, the undersigned makes this motion most respectfully—indeed, most humbly—submitting that the relief requested herein is consistent with the interests of justice, will not cause any material delay of this matter, and will not prejudice Appellant.

5. Prior to making this motion, the undersigned consulted with Appellant's counsel C. Mitchell Brown, Esquire, who has kindly authorized the undersigned to represent to the Court that Appellant has no objection to the extension of time requested herein.

6. Appellant's initial brief is just over 35 pages, and it contains a number arguments. It has become apparent to the undersigned that the abbreviated work schedule and time commitments (both work-related¹ and non-work-related) in this holiday season have made preparation of Respondents' initial brief and designation of matter considerably more difficult than it otherwise would be—and, candidly, more difficult than the undersigned expected when the extension of time to the present January 7, 2015, deadline was sought.

7. The undersigned would also note that an extension of ten (10) additional days is sought herein in view of counsel's schedule after January 6, 2015, which includes oral argument in our State's Supreme Court on January 13 and mediations on January 14 and 15. Nonetheless, to the extent that the Court is not inclined to grant the 10-day extension requested herein, but would be inclined to grant a smaller allowance of time, an extension of even two (2) days' time, i.e., from Wednesday, January 7 to Friday, January 9, would be of considerable benefit.

WHEREFORE, Respondents move this Honorable Court for a 10-day extension (from January 7, 2015) of their deadline to file and serve their initial brief and designation of matter; or, alternatively, a 2-day extension (from January 7, 2015). If the Court grants the requested extension, the new deadline for the Respondents' initial brief and designation of matter will be Tuesday, January 20, 2015 (because the 10th day would fall on Saturday, January 17 and Monday, January 19, 2015, is the Martin Luther King, Jr. Day Holiday²), or, alternatively, Friday, January 9, 2015, according to the undersigned's calculations. Lastly, Respondents request that the Court hold their present deadline for initial briefing/designation of matter in abeyance until it acts upon this motion.

<SIGNED ON THE FOLLOWING PAGE>

² See Rule 263(a), SCACR (addressing computation of time).
