Dear Mr. Hunt:

Good afternoon! Thank you for your email. Our case management system automatically generates mailing addresses based upon the information you have entered into the Attorney Information System (AIS). Once you have updated AIS, that change should be effective immediately on all appellate court correspondence. Our system currently shows that mail should be addressed to 109 Laurens Road, Building 4, Suite D, Greenville SC 29607. If you receive any correspondence from us to your old address, please let me know immediately so I can ensure that our system is operating correctly.

I hope you had a very Happy New Year!

Dear Madame Clerk,

I am counsel for Appellant Norman Quinton Hunt in the above appeal.

Since the filing of the initial brief of Appellant my office has moved from 201 West Stone Avenue, Greenville, SC 29609 to 109 Laurens Road, Building 4, Suite D, Greenville, SC 29607. I believe and hope change of address was provided to you previously. My secretary is out and I am unable to verify that was done.

I worry that it was not as it seems initial brief of Respondent should have been filed and served by now and I have not received that from the Court or the Attorney General.

If you have not previously amended your records I hope you will do so and apologize for the delay in notifying you of my move.

Thanks.

Tom
