Re: Goldie Grier Reeves v. Rogers C. Reeves, et al. Judge Verdin's
Court February 6, 2013.

Dear Hollie,
I have your letter responding to my request.

You seem to have located the Wrong Case: You list

Case: #2013-cp-23-03057 Stinson v. Hans and Franz.
I contacted the Greenville, Court house record department and They have my information. The lady claimed it was probably a filing error.
Therefore, your charge is probably not accurate. However we need to get this ball rolling back on track.

I would like to suggest that you take the requested amount I've included as a deposit. I was told this would be regularly done.
Further, and importantly please request an extension from the court of administration.

I appreciate your cooperation with this matter. There are two other information glitches as well. Contact me as soon as you locate the transcript. Set Meeting

I have to apologize for the errors. I have had two strokes and can no longer write by hand., so there is no preliminary copy.

Just straight from thought to paper.

Ps, Your stationary fooled me I filed it under Judge
Verdin's court with the additional info I just received.
Enclosures:

Sincerely,
Goldie Reeves
