Appellant hereby petitions this court for a rehearing as to clarification of this Honorable Court's Order of December 16, 2014, (copy attached) and/or "the terms that are fixed" by this Court in this matter. Appellant sought to dismiss her appeal, without prejudice, as an abeyance of this matter, so that she could file a Writ of Mandamus as she was not afforded due process, a basic civil right guaranteed by the United States and South Carolina Constitutions. Did this Honorable Court rule in her favor and is now remitting this case to the lower court so that she can file her Writ of Mandamus?

Respectfully submitted,
