IN THE COURT OF COMMON PLEAS
 SEVENTH JUDICIAL CIRCUIT

2013-CP-42-2403
 2013-CP-42-2608

RECEIVED
 DEC 29 2014
SC Court of Appeals

ORDER OF DISMISSAL

This matter comes before the Court by way of two applications filed for Post-Conviction Relief, Case No. 2013-2403, filed on June 4, 2013, and Case no. 2013-2608, filed on June 20, 2013. The applications are denied and dismissed for the following reasons:

This Court notes that the Applicant, following numerous frivolous and repetitive filings, was served with an Order Restricting Future Filings on April 4, 2012. In the Order Restricting Future Filings, the Honorable J. Mark Hayes II made the following rulings:

1. The Clerk of Court is directed to refuse to accept further petitions and applications from the Applicant asking the Court to entertain matters unless he pays a filing fee generally required for filing motions and petitions with this Court.
2. The Applicant is prohibited from filing any legal actions in any jurisdiction in South Carolina without submitting the requisite filing fees<sup>1</sup> and providing a properly notarized affidavit certifying that the Applicant believes in good faith that the matter raised is not frivolous. The requisite filing fee must also be submitted with any subsequent filings.
3. Any Applications submitted with properly notarized affidavits will be submitted to the Administrative Judge for Common Pleas to make a finding on whether the allegations are non-frivolous and proper for the Court before they are filed; and

4. The Clerk of Courts should be instructed to return all documents that do not comply with this order.

The Applicant subsequently submitted for filing the above listed applications without the required filing fee, without a properly notarized affidavit certifying that the matter raised is not frivolous, and without the approval of the Administrative Judge for Common Pleas.

This Court finds that the applications should be dismissed for failure to comply with the Order Restricting Future Filings. The Spartanburg Clerk of Court's Office is instructed to accept no future applications or petitions from the Applicant unless he fully complies with the Order Restricting Future Filings. Any application or petition received that is accompanied by the filing fee and notarized affidavit shall be forwarded to the Administrative Judge for Common Pleas for his review prior to filing in the Clerk's office; however, if Applicant attempts to file a petition or application without the filing fee and affidavit, the documents shall be returned to Applicant.

For the foregoing reasons, the applications for post-conviction relief are hereby denied and dismissed.

AND IT IS SO ORDERED this 20 day of November, 2014.

RE: Case No. 2013-CP-42-2403, Eddie Dean Dogan, Jr.

Dear Judge Couch:

I am writing you concerning the above listed matter.

Mr. Dogan, after filing his fifth post-conviction relief application in 2011, was served with an Order Restricting Future Filings. This Order, attached for your review, instructs the Applicant that he must seek the approval of the Administrative Judge for Common Pleas before filing another application and if the Administrative Judge approves, then he is still required to pay the filing fee. The Order also instructs the Clerk of Court not to accept any new applications from Mr. Dogan unless he has complied with the Order.

Because this filed application does not comply with the Order Restricting Future Filings, the State does not intend to respond to the document as a properly filed application, unless instructed by this Court.

Please let me know if you have any questions or concerns about this matter or wish for additional action to be taken on our part.

Sincerely,

Suzanne H. White
Assistant Deputy Attorney General

RE: Amendments to the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules

ORDER

---

On October 21, 2008, the General Assembly overrode the Governor's veto of Senate Bill 429 relating to DNA evidence, and the Senate Bill became Act No. 413 of 2008. Based on this legislation, amendments to the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR) are necessary.

Accordingly, pursuant to Article V, §4 of the South Carolina Constitution, the SCACR is amended as shown in the attachment to this order. These amendments shall be submitted to the General Assembly as provided by Article V, § 4A of the South Carolina Constitution.

IT IS SO ORDERED.

IT IS ORDERED AND ADJUDGED:  See attached order;  Statement of judgment by the Court:

After reviewing the documents on file and the arguments presented, the Court is denying the State's motion to dismiss. Based on the information presented the Court cannot determine, as a matter of law and when viewing the information in a light most favorable to the non-moving party, that the information is not newly discovered evidence. Additionally, the record before the Court is unclear as to how the document (substance analysis document) became known to the applicant and why he did not have access to it before. The Court requests Mr. Dogan's attorney to prepare a short order denying the State's motion dismiss for the Court's signature.

Dated at Spartanburg, South Carolina, this the _____ day of JANUARY, 2008.
