RE: North American v. P.J. Richardson
Opinion No. 27475
Appellate Case No. 2012-208586

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

I respectfully request, on behalf of Mr. Richardson, an additional 15 days to prepare a petition for rehearing in this matter. This request is based on the following: 1) the undersigned must travel to Chicago today and will be there for the remainder of the week at a business conference; and 2) the undersigned has many other current deadlines including a federal court deadline approaching next week in a $97 million verdict matter, which is requiring time. Richardson asked if opposing counsel objected but was not informed of any response as yet. Richardson submits no one is prejudiced by this 15 day extension in this matter. If this request is granted, Richardson's new due date for a petition for rehearing would be February 6, 2015. Enclosed is our check in the amount of $25.00 as the required filing fee.

With kind regards, I remain

Sincerely yours,

C. Mitchell Brown
