RE: Oscar Sorcia v. Bardy K. Mathis, et., al. C/A 2011-CP-23-8455

Dear Mrs. McBride,

This letter is in reference to the above case. I have been informed that you were the court reporter who took the record for a hearing held on June 19, 2013, in which I was present and Mr. Paul Landis also. Judge Letitia H. Verdin was the Judge.

Mrs. McBride, although I do not remember any record being taken, perhaps because I speak very little English and did not fully understand exactly what was going on that day. However, I do respectfully request that you transcribe the record and provide me with a complete copy of the same.

Please notify me as to the cost of this record. Also, be advise that this record is needed for the purpose of appeal to the South Carolina Court of Appeals, and as required by Rule 701 (a) SCACR.

Your cooperation and assistance will be greatly appreciated, I thank you in advance and will await your response at your earliest convenient time possible.

Respectfully Requested

S/ _____
