Re: Calvin Gaddy v. SCDC
Appellate Case No. 2014-002629

Dear Mr. Gaddy:

Upon reviewing your notice of appeal, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or the appeal will be dismissed:

- A proof of service has not been provided stating all parties were served with the notice of appeal. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.
- A proof of service has not been provided stating that a copy has been served on the Administrative Law Court, as required by Rule 203(b)(6), SCACR. You must serve and file a proof of service substantially in the format shown by Form 7 in Appendix C to part II of the SCACR.
- A proper notice of appeal has not been filed containing all the information required by Rule 203, SCACR. A notice of appeal must include the name of the court from which the appeal is taken, the judge's name, the lower court docket number, the date of the order being appealed, and a statement of when the appellant received the order.

Very truly yours,

CLERK
