RE: The State v. Gayle G. Morgan
Appellate Case No: 2014-002664

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

On December 31, 2014, I forwarded a letter to opposing counsel advising that our Office received a copy of the Notice of Appeal from the Court and asking counsel to serve me with the Initial Brief of Appellant. However, I have since been contacted by opposing counsel who informed me that the appeal arises from a probation revocation proceeding. Counsel also advised that he attempted to serve the solicitor but was advised that that Office did not handle the probation matter. Counsel then served the probation agent with the notice of appeal. Because the Office of Probation, Parole and Pardon Services appeared at the hearing below and because counsel for Probation, Parole and Pardon Services handles all appeals from probation proceedings, our Office is not involved as counsel for any party to this appeal. If you have listed me as counsel for Respondent, please correct your records so that all correspondence and other documents are sent to the correct attorney for Respondent.

By copy of this letter, I am confirming my communication with you to opposing counsel and counsel for Probation, Parole and Pardon Services.

Sincerely,

Salley W. Elliott
Senior Assistant Deputy Attorney General
