Dear Ms. Cristaldi,

I received your letter inquiring about the cost of the transcript from the August 20, 2014, hearing regarding the case of John Rakowsky vs. Adrian Falgione, etc.

I have estimated the transcript to be 27 pages, and the cost per page is $3.25. Thus, the overall estimated cost of the transcript is $87.75. If you would still like to order the transcript, please send a cashier's check or a money order (no cash or personal checks) in the above amount to me, Daphne Helms, at the above address. Upon receipt of this prepayment amount, I will have 60 days within which to complete the transcript.

If I do not receive the prepayment, I will assume that you have decided not to order the transcript.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in cursive script that reads "Daphne Helms".

RECEIVED

DEC 30 2014

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Mr. Sribnick,

I received your letter dated December 9, 2014, stating that you had requested the transcript of John Rakowsky v. Adrian Falgione, etc., and had not heard back from me regarding your transcript request. I received a letter from Ms. Amanda Cristaldi requesting the transcript, and the return address had your name and address. I responded to Ms. Cristaldi's letter in a timely manner. Due to the fact that your name and address were at the top of the letter, it was my understanding that Ms. Cristaldi must have been writing the letter on your behalf. I gave her all the pertinent information with regards to ordering a transcript.

I was out of the country for an extended period of time, and upon my return I received the letter that I had mailed to Ms. Cristaldi with a handwritten note on the envelope stating that "addressee does not live at this address." Sometime later I received your letter stating that you had not heard from me regarding requests you had sent to me regarding the transcript. Your letter dated December 9, 2014, was the first letter I had received from you with the Charleston address on it.

Please find attached copies of all of the correspondence that I have received regarding your request. The information you need as far as ordering the transcript is in the October 28, 2014, letter to Ms. Cristaldi.

Sincerely,

Daphne Helms
