Re: Appellate Case Number 2014-000583, Samuel T. Brick, Appellant v. Richland County
Planning Commission and Fairways Development LLC, Intervenor, Respondents

Dear Ms Kitchings:

Enclosed for filing are the final appellant briefs in the referenced case. In accordance with Judge Short's Order, I have filed ten (10) copies of each brief, nine bound and one unbound. These are filed within twenty days of my filing of the Amended Record and the Appendix to the Amended Record. I also have enclosed a Certificate of Compliance and Certificate of Service (combined). Each brief also includes a Certificate of Compliance with Rule 211 (b), SCACR.

I am uncertain whether the Court will submit this case for oral argument. In the event it does, please protect me from any appearance during the periods noted in this letter. I have been appointed in the Federal Executive Service as an Army Reserve Ambassador for South Carolina and the South Eastern Region of the United States. I have scheduled obligations next week and the first week in June returning on June 10th in Colorado Springs at the Air Force Academy. There are other events tentatively scheduled in July and September but they have not been formalized. I will advise as soon as I have particular schedules.

I have planned and paid for a winter vacation to St. Croix and will be travelling from February 4 through the 18th and be out of the Continental United States during that period.

I also have a case in Ohio where I am appearing pro hac vice before the Probate Court of Cuyahoga County. I have an appearance scheduled for January 29, 2015, and expect several other appearances during the year. None have been scheduled as of this date other than the January date.

Please advise if you need anything further in the scheduling of any appearance. I will attempt to keep you informed of dates as I receive them.

Thank you for your assistance in this matter.

Sincerely,

Samuel T. Brick, Appellant, Pro se
