Jenny:

Whitney is with our firm and has the authority to speak on behalf of all appellant's attorneys. She should be on case but if not, I know she will file a notice of appearance in a short period of time. Thanks in advance.

Subject: RE: Rainey v. Charlotte-Mecklenburg Hospital- 2013-002058- Oral Argument

Dear Whitney:

Good morning! Thank you so much for your email. We are hoping to schedule oral argument in this case on March 2 at 12:00 pm in Courtroom I. Have you made an appearance in this case? Our records do not reflect that you have made an appearance on behalf of the appellant. We can happily add you! I have spoken to Mr. Todd and Mr. Horner's assistant, who told me that they are available on March 2. Can you speak on behalf of S. Randall Hood, Lara Pettis Harrill, Duane Michael Shaw, Nathan James Sheldon, Jordan Christopher Calloway, Deborah G. Casey, and/or Gerald Malloy? We have a large number of attorneys on behalf of the appellant and I want to make sure whomever plans to argue or attend the argument does not have a conflict on March 2.

Thanks so much to everyone for your help in scheduling this case. Please don't hesitate to let us know if there are any questions or concerns. If there are no objections to scheduling this case on March 2 at 12:00 pm (noon), we will send a written oral argument notification to the parties.

Thank you!

Jenny,

Hope you're doing well. I left a voice mail for you this morning with this information, but wanted to follow up with an email, as well. I was told you called the Rock Hill office on Friday to schedule oral argument for Rainey at the Court of Appeals. Oral argument for March 2nd works in my schedule. Thanks for your help with this matter.

Whitney
