Re: Jeremy Sweat, #326997 v. State of South Carolina; 2010-CP-14-0076
Appellate Case No. : 2014-002624

Dear Mr. Shearouse: On January 12, 2015, I wrote the Court and asked to be relieved as counsel in the above captioned appeal. At that time I noted that this client had not returned the affidavit of indigency I had sent to him. We have now received that affidavit back from the client. I enclose the original and have sent a copy to the Appellate Division of SCCID for their records. I would note one apparent error in this affidavit. I was originally hired in this case by this client's mother. She paid my retainer of $5,000.00 and made a $1,500.00 trust deposit for expenses to be billed against. Unfortunately, her check for her first payment on the balance of my fees was returned for insufficient funds. At that point, I agreed to have my then associate, Christina Dixon Parnall, represent this client for the amount of the retainer already paid to my firm. Ms. Parnall was on my payroll at the time. She completed this case and I subsequently filed the Notice of Appeal on the client's behalf since Ms. Parnall had left my firm and taken a position with the Charleston County Public Defender's Office.

I note that the enclosed affidavit indicates that the affiant paid Ms. Parnall $1,500.00 in Attorney Fees in this matter. I have no knowledge concerning any payment made to Ms. Parnall in this case. By copy of this letter I am asking her to advise the Court if she received any attorney fees in this case directly from the client, or his family, before or after she left my firm. I do not believe that to be the case. It may be that Mr. Sweat is thinking about the $1,500.00 trust deposit made to my firm by his mother, not by him.

The Honorable Daniel E. Shearouse

If and when I am relieved as counsel for this appeal, I will return any funds remaining in trust which were not used on expenses to the client's mother since it was she who made the original trust deposit. Please advise me if there is anything further the Court requires from me in order to dispose of my request to be relieved as counsel in this matter. For now, as always, I remain,

Sincerely,

Tara Dawn Shurling
