RE: Summer v. Wilson - Appellate Case No. 2014-002222 – Status Update

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

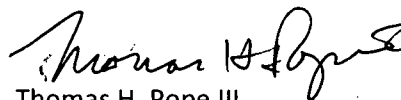

I am writing to update the Court on the above matter. On Friday, January 16, 2015, the Circuit Court issued an Order which, among other things, ordered the Attorney General to produce the documents listed on two privilege logs and granted leave for the plaintiff, upon review of the documents when produced, to have ten days after receipt of same to file a motion to request the production of additional documents sought in the Complaint. The Order further determined that plaintiff was the prevailing party in this action under FOIA and was entitled to attorneys' fees. The Court deferred ruling on the amount of attorneys' fees and costs until after all FOIA appeals are concluded.

We will be glad to provide the Court with another update in the next 30 days, or sooner if the Court so advises.

With best regards.

Sincerely,

POPE AND HUDGENS, P.A.

Thomas H. Pope III
Counsel for Plaintiff Susan D. Summer
