Dear Mr. Shearouse:

On January 14, 2015 a request for an extension of time in which to file the Petition for Certiorari was hand-delivered to your office. The check submitted to cover the filing fee was inadvertently written for the wrong amount. Upon follow up with your office, we have learned that your office is having difficulty locating the original request for an extension and check. Accordingly, please find enclosed a clocked in copy of that request from our records, which may assist in locating that original. Also, we have enclosed a check for $25.00, the amount we are advised is the proper sum to cover the filing fee for this motion.

A copy of this correspondence and enclosures are being provided to the Court of Appeals Clerk of Court's Office as well. Please contact our office if any additional documentation or information is necessary to perfect this motion and we will submit the same as soon as possible. Thank you in advance for your consideration of this request.

With warmest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Harvey M. Watson III

Re: Julie Tuten v. David C. Joel et. al
Appellate Case No.: 2012-211915

Dear Mr. Shearouse:

Appellants David Charles Joel, individually, and doing business as Joel & Associates, P.A. and/or Joel & Associates have begun preparation of a Petition for Certiorari to the Court of Appeals to be filed related to the above-referenced matter. However, the undersigned counsel for Appellants has missed extensive time at work recently due to influenza illness, both me personally as well as three immediate family members.

As a result, Appellants must respectfully request an extension of time in which to file the Petition for Certiorari in your office. An extension of one week would be sufficient, and counsel for Respondent, who is copied on this correspondence, has indicated his consent to such a request.

Finally, enclosed is a check for $20.00 to cover the filing fee for this motion for an extension. A copy is being provided to the Court of Appeals Clerk of Court's Office as well. Please contact our office if any additional documentation or information is necessary to perfect this motion and we will submit the same as soon as possible. Thank you in advance for your consideration of this request.

With warmest personal regards, I am

Sincerely yours,

Harvey M. Watson III
