Henry Nesbit

Appellant

Appellate Case No. 2014-001231

Motion For An Extension of Time

To: The S C Court of Appeals,

The Court gave the appellant 45 days to submit his appellate Brief. The appellant have recent death in his immediate family. This death of his immediate family member has left the appellant in a state of mental anguish to such a degree that it creates an inability for the appellant to timely respond and submit his appellant's Brief due to this period of psychological upheaval and mourning. Therefore, the appellant humbly motions for an extension of Time to February 21, 2015 to submit the Brief to the court. The appellant prays the court will grant this request.

Respectfully
