

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Michael D. Ficklin, Appellant,

v.

Security Forces, Inc., and Sentry Insurance Company, Respondents.

Appellate Case No. 2014-001720

ORDER

Respondents have filed a motion to dismiss, arguing the underlying order is an interlocutory order that is not immediately appealable. Appellant has filed a return opposing the motion. Respondent's motion is granted because the underlying order is not immediately appealable. See S.C. Code Ann. § 1-23-390 (Supp. 2014) (providing "[a]n aggrieved party may obtain a review of a final judgment of the circuit court"); Bone v. U.S. Food Serv., 399 S.C. 566, 575, 733 S.E.2d 200, 204-05 (2012) ("A 'final judgment' [under section 1-23-390] must dispose of the whole subject matter of the action or terminate the action, leaving nothing to be done but to enforce what has already been determined."); id. at 575, 733 S.E.2d at 205 ("[A] a circuit court order remanding a matter to an agency is not a final judgment and it is not immediately appealable.").
