KEVIN C. BRADLEY, 339031,

PETITIONER,

v.

THE STATE OF SOUTH CAROLINA,

RESPONDENT,

PETITIONER'S MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

THIS MATTER comes before the Court by way of an appeal from a Post-Conviction Relief Order. The Petition for Writ of Certiorari is due for filing on January 29, 2015. Because of the following reasons I am asking for this extension:

The Monday before Thanksgiving I got very sick with a respiratory virus, and was out of work for a week. Although I did not mention my illness in my motion, it was a major factor in my making a first extension request on November 20, 2014. Just as I began to recover from that illness, I came down with the flu despite my annual flu shot. My second extension request was made on December 18, 2014 due to my illness, and the fact that my staff was scheduled to be off December 19th through January 2nd for the holidays. In truth, I was still sick through the Christmas holidays, and could not have completed this Certiorari Petition over the holidays even if my support staff had been available. Since I returned to work January 5, 2015, I have been working hard to catch up from all the time I missed due to my illness and the holidays. Despite my best efforts, my heavy court schedule in January, and the backlog that accumulated while I was ill, have prevented me from completing this Certiorari Petition. For these reasons, I very reluctantly ask for a third thirty (30) day extension of time to file this Certiorari Petition. I apologize for the delay, and regret having to ask for the Court's consideration again.

Since this is my third extension request, opposing counsel, Daniel Gourley, Assistant Attorney General has consented to this extension by his signature below. (In compliance with In Re: Extensions in Criminal and Post-Conviction Relief Cases, S. C. Sup. Ct. Order dated March 18, 2009) (Davis Adv. Sh. No. 13 at 1). I no longer have an associate in my law firm, and therefore can not have another lawyer in my firm certify the necessity of the extension. I do not anticipate any further extension request for this stage of this PCR appeal.

Respectfully submitted,
