Re: The State v. David J. Benjamin
Appellate Case No. 2013-001496

Dear Counsel:

Upon reviewing your record on appeal and final brief of appellant, the following deficiency or deficiencies have been noted under the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules (SCACR), and any deficiency must be corrected within ten (10) days of the date of this letter or this appeal may be dismissed:

- The caption/title of the record on appeal does not comply with Rule 267(a), SCACR. Specifically, all parties listed on the respondent's brief are not listed on the cover of the record on appeal.
- The color of the cover of the final brief of respondent is not in compliance with Rule 267(e), SCACR. The front and back cover of the final brief of appellant should be blue in color.
- The number of copies provided is not in compliance with the SCACR. The Court has only received one bound copy of the final brief of appellant. You must provide one unbound original and fourteen copies of your final brief in compliance with Rule 211(a), SCACR.

Very truly yours,
