THE STATE,

RESPONDENT,

V.

SANDY LEE LOCKLEAR,

APPELLANT

APPELLATE CASE NO. 2014-001354

MOTION FOR EXTENSION OF TIME

Pursuant to Rule 240 of the South Carolina Appellate Court Rules, the undersigned attorney, counsel for Sandy Lee Locklear, moves for an extension of the deadline for serving and filing the appellant's initial brief and designation of matter to be included in the record on appeal. These documents were originally to be filed by on December 8, 2014. Counsel sought and was granted an extension of this deadline to January 7, 2015. Counsel then sought and was granted a second extension of this deadline, and the initial brief and designation are now due on February 6, 2015.

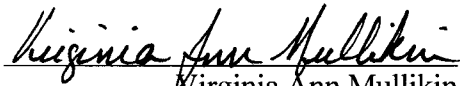

Because of my recent work schedule and heavy workload, I will be unable to complete these documents by this date. Therefore, I would respectfully move for a 30-day extension. This will be the last extension I need, absent some unforeseen extraordinary circumstances. I spoke with opposing counsel, Donald J. Zelenka of the South Carolina Attorney General's Office, and he consents to this motion.

Respectfully Submitted,

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Ms. Kitchings:

The Appellant's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal is due to be served and filed on February 6, 2015. Due to a heavy workload, I respectfully request another 30-day extension of this deadline. Enclosed is a motion stating this request, signed by a partner at my firm and me. I spoke to opposing counsel, Donald J. Zelenka of the South Carolina Attorney General's Office, and he consents to this motion.

I am enclosing the original and six copies of our Motion for an Extension of Time. By copy of this letter, I am serving Donald J. Zelenka of the South Carolina Attorney General's Office with the same.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "E. Thompson Kinney", with a stylized flourish at the end.

E. Thompson Kinney
