Re: Petition For Rehearing; Certiorari; Notice of and Filing;

RECEIVED

The State v. Matthew B. Fullbright, Appellate Case No. 2012-20755^{OCT 24 2014}3.

SC Court of Appeals

Dear Ms. Hackett:

I spoke with you via telephone during the first week of this month and I asked you to file a petition for rehearing if the case is affirmed. You replied that you may or may not, depending on how the opinion reads.

I am again requesting by this letter that you file that petition, of course, only upon affirmance.

However, if you decide not to file the petition, I ask that you ask the Court to remove you from representing me and immediately notify of your decision not to file the petition.

I stress your promptness in informing me of your choice to file or not for the following reasons:

1. There is but a very short fifteen-day window from the date the opinion is rendered in which to file a petition for rehearing;
2. I have experienced numerous delays receiving my legal mail for various deficiencies within SCOC;
3. There is no "mail-box rule" on direct in the S.C. Court of Appeals;

Therefore, I need your decision to file or not file quickly in order that I may read the opinion, develop and write a petition for rehearing, and reply in time to have it in the Court by 5 p.m. the last day allowed.

Note: * If the lower court's decision is affirmed and you do file the petition, please send me a copy.

Thank you.

Very Truly,

Your Client,

Matthew B. Fullbright
