Re: Launeil Sanders v. Janneth E. Sanders, Burts Turner & Rhodes, and Richard H. Rhodes

Case No.: 2011191726

Dear Mr. Sanders:

I am in receipt of the Record on Appeal that you submitted to the Court of Appeals. This letter is to advise that you have added items to the Record on Appeal that were not contained in your Designation of Matter. Specifically, these items are as follows:

- (a) Original Complaint AMENDED, dated October 19, 2010 [This pleading is supposed to be attached as an exhibit to the Affidavit in Support of the Motion to Dismiss, dated January 25, 2011];
- (b) Original Complaint, dated October 4, 2010 [This pleading is supposed to be attached as an exhibit to the Affidavit in Support of the Motion to Dismiss, dated January 25, 2011];
- (c) Affidavit of Launeil Sanders and Answer to Complaint, dated October 12, 2010 [This Family Court pleading has not been mentioned in this Appeal]; and
- (d) Affidavit of Launeil Sanders and Answer to Amended Complaint, dated October 28, 2010 [This Family Court pleading has not been mentioned in this Appeal].

Additionally, the Record on Appeal that you submitted to the Court does not contain items that were included in our Designation of Matter. Specifically, these items are as follows:

- (a) Answer, dated October 29, 2010;
- (b) Motion to Dismiss, dated November 2, 2010; and
- (c) Affidavit in Support of Motion, dated January 25, 2011 – the Affidavit is contained in the Record; however, the exhibits [Family Court pleadings] are not attached as exhibits to the Affidavit.

Please correct the Record on Appeal and submit the appropriate documents to the Court. If this is not done forthwith, I will be filing a Motion with the Court of Appeals.

With kind regards,

William H. Rhodes
