RECEIVED

JAN 12 2015

(JAN 7 14) S.C. SUPREME COURT

I the undersigned respectfully requested that the South Carolina Supreme Court Clerks office could assist me in obtaining information or even forwarding this letter to the South Carolina Administrated Law Court.

The undersigned has been held here in, at the York County Mass Justice Center as a detainee, awaiting trial, or to be retried, however, I have suffered a great deal for unlawful act and, constitution violations, in which has compelled me to seek out for assistance. The undersigned would greatly appreciate if your office could forward this letter to the Administrated Law Court for requested items, such as court schedule for the month of Nov. 2011. The Court Reported Name.

The undersigned would appreciate if the S.C. Supreme Court Clerks office mail him a copy of the Nov. 2011 indictment which should be filed in your office from his Direct Appeal,

This Indictment can be helpful in my up coming trial and also used as evidents.

In closing please file this letter in your office, and send me an stamp clock copy of this letter as a receipt.

Thank you kindly

Yours Truly

P.S. The undersigned was interested in the Rules to the Declaratory Judgment, and how long the Court has before ruling on the motion: Rules to state habeas.
