

The South Carolina Court of Appeals

Christopher Carlton as the Personal Representative of the Estate of Helen Tucker Carlton; Christopher Carlton; John Thomas Carlton; and Christopher Carlton as the Personal Representative of the Estate of Kimberly Carlton Baker, Respondents, v.

Greenlawn Funeral Home, Appellant.

Appellate Case No. 2014-001625

ORDER

Respondents' counsel has filed a motion to be relieved as counsel, stating "there is a breakdown in the attorney/client relationship which prevents [counsel] from effectively representing Respondents any longer." Appellant and Respondents consent to the motion. After careful consideration, the motion to be relieved is granted. Respondents have thirty days to obtain new counsel, or this court will presume Respondents are proceeding pro se.

FOR THE COURT

Columbia, South Carolina

FILED
2/13/15

cc:

Sheila Marlouvon Bias, Esquire

Charles Cantzon Foster, II, Esquire

Bryan D. Caskey, Esquire

Caleb Martin Riser, Esquire

Drew Hamilton Butler, Esquire

Christopher Carlton

John Thomas Carlton

Christopher Carlton