Re: Failure of Clerks Ministerial Duty to Appellant Erwings
Cause in Case No. 2014-002173

Dear Ms. Allen,

Per your letter of Jan. 30, 2015, I must ask if there is a real misunderstanding or is this Clerks staff being "deliberately ignorant" of standard procedures and duty. As I stated in my prior letter, dated Jan. 23, 2015, the problem should be clear to any reasonably intelligent person; but in the interest of fairness I will restate it in the hope of an informal resolution.

This appellant has diligently supplied this Office with copies of all documents submitted, clearly marked, to be "Filed or Clocked-in" stamped along with SASE's for return to him. This is not a strange request but SOP in any Clerks office, federal or state, in America. To date, none of the multiple filings by this applicant have been returned to him.

again in the interest of fairness, your Office is given an opportunity to fulfill it's ministerial duty and return the appellants copies of previously submitted documents. If said documents are not received within ten (10) working days, writ of Mandamus will be sought.

Date: 2/4/2015
