Re: Dewey Lee Small vs. Maxine Johnson, et al.
Appellate Case Number 2014-002593

Dear Ms. Kitchings,

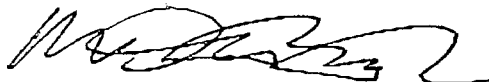

In regards to the above referenced matter, this letter has been written in order to clarify a transcript issue concerning this appeal.

According to our records a letter was written to your office December 15, 2014 by Appellants' counsel Charles Nation, informing the court that there had been an order of the transcript for the September 29, 2014 hearing before the Special Referee, but that that order had not yet been received. Since that letter we have yet to be informed of the receipt of this last transcript by Appellants' counsel. However, after contacting the court reporting company today we have learned that Charles Nation had in fact been sent this transcript and we have subsequently ordered our own copy today, February 24, 2015.

Earlier this month, Appellant's Counsel filed his Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal. Therefore, our initial brief is due March 5, 2015.

This letter is to inform the court that we will be seeking an order from the court in granting the Respondent's Motion for Extension of Time. This motion will be based on the fact that we have not yet received the transcript for the above referenced hearing, that this was due to the lack of correspondence by Appellant and their respective counsel, and that in order to fully complete the Respondent's Initial Brief and Designation of Matter to be Included in the Record on Appeal the Respondent will need a copy of this transcript.

With best regards,

Norwood D. DuRant
