Re: Appellate Case No. 2014-002571
Robert Shelley, et al. v. Horry County State Bank and HCSB Financial Corporation
C/A No. 2012-CP-26-5546
Our File No. 2012-0104C

Dear Ms. Reed:

Thank you for your email letter of today's date. First, please accept our apologies as it was certainly not our intention to imply that you were lying about receipt of our letter requesting a transcript in this case. Our only intention in the statement which appears to have offended you was that we did, in fact, mail our November 25, 2014 letter to you at the correct address and that such letter had not been returned to us by the post office.

Our letter of February 10, 2015 to South Carolina Court Administration was mailed pursuant to SCACR 207(a)(5) which states that we are to notify the Court in writing if we have not received a transcript or notice of extension within ten (10) days of the date such transcript is due. Our only intention was to follow Court Rules.

Again, please accept our apologies. At no time did we intend to criticize or offend you. If you would be so kind as to let us know when we could expect receipt of the requested transcript we would be most grateful.

Sincerely yours,

Gene M. Connell, Jr.

Re: Robert Shelley, et. al. vs. Horry County State Bank, et. al.
Case Number 2012-CP-26-5546

Dear Mr. Connell:

My letter dated February 12, 2015, is my acceptance of receiving your request and that it will be prepared. The letter I sent to you is NOT incorrectly dated February 12, 2015, as stated in the e-mail sent to me by your legal assistant Barbara A. Smith. As I stated in my previous letter dated February 12th, I have NEVER received a request from your office requesting this transcript. The only request I received from your office is Catalina London Limited vs. Elisa Narruhm and you have received that transcript.

Just because one person received a letter and I did not does not mean that I'm lying to you as stated in so many words from the e-mail I got from your legal assistant. The fact that I didn't receive the request and your office has not received anything back from the post office tells me your office NEVER mailed the letter to me.

There is no need for me to go back and forth with you and your office about this issue, but I do have to defend myself against untruths being said about me in a letter sent to Court of Appeals and Court Administration.

Sincerely,
