Re: McMasters v. Charpia, Appeal

Dear Mrs. Charpia:

Enclosed please find an Order I received today from the Court of Appeals. As you will note, the Court has allowed Mr. Cisa to serve and file his brief outside of the time allowed by the Appellate Court Rules.

The next step in this appeal will be oral argument before the Court wherein Mr. Cisa and I argue our respective cases. The Court will schedule this oral argument, and I will notify you of the date and time once I receive notice.

Please be aware that the Court may elect to decide the case without oral argument. I will keep you apprised of any developments.

Please do not hesitate to call if you have any questions regarding this or any other matter.

With kindest regards, I remain

Very truly yours,

Frederick J. Newton
